Good afternoon,

I hope everyone is doing well. Please see the COVID-19 updates for the week. We will now only be disseminating an update once a month, unless there are extenuating circumstances or pertinent operational or safety updates that need to be shared. As we get closer to Thanksgiving and Christmas break, CCC will provide information regarding travel updates as well. The links within this document remain active and can be accessed at any time in the immediate future. Any questions or concerns, please let me know. Take care and have a wonderful weekend.
