Colby Community College Mission

Challenge students to adapt to a diverse society. Create opportunities for student growth. Connect student learning with professional experiences.

Course Description

You will gain an overview of financial planning with an emphasis on budgeting, managing credit, debt management, and making purchasing decisions. This course is designed for non-business majors.

COURSE OUTCOMES AND COMPETENCIES

- Objective 1: Explain the importance of financial planning
- Objective 2: Demonstrate your ability to balance a checkbook
- Objective 3: Understand the role that credit plays in our lives

COURSE POLICIES

Assignments and Tests

When you first view your class, look over class requirements, assignments, and other class content to ensure that you wish to remain in the class. If you decide to drop the class, do NOT post in Canvas at all, as that counts as attendance per College policy, and you will be charged a portion of tuition for dropping after attending/posting.

The student is expected to have assignments done when the instructor determines they are DUE. The instructor determines acceptance of late assignments. There are no written examinations in this class. Submitting timely work and participating will determine the final grade.

You will need to setup a free Cash Course account to complete the assignments in this course. (Instructions for registering for a Cash Course account are in the Modules in Canvas.)

The Multiple-Choice questions will be answered in the course and I will pull your scores and enter them into Canvas. The worksheets and documents you have to download from Cash Course will need to be completed and then Uploaded in our Canvas course to submit the assignment.

IMPORTANT!!--All assignments will need to be completed and submitted by the DUE DATE and TIME stated for each assignment to get credit.

See Assignment Schedule sheet for a tentative schedule for due dates for each assignment (subject to change per instructor discretion). This sheet is located in the Files tab in the Navigator bar (on the left) in Canvas.

IMPORTANT!!--Assignments in this course will be submitted to an AI/Plagiarism checker(s) to evaluate for Similarity (Plagiarism and/or AI--Artificial Intelligence). I want to hear YOUR VOICE and YOUR WORDS, not the words of another person or an online source, unless I have specifically instructed that AI will be part of the assignment at hand. You will NOT get credit for any work that indicates Plagiarism or AI content (unless otherwise specified as part of the instructions for the specific assignment).

METHOD OF EVALUATION

Your grade will be based on the following:

| Items | Points / Percentage |
|-------------|---------------------|
| Assignments | 100% |

Grade Scale

Your grade will be based on the following:

| Grade | Percentage |
|-------|------------|
| A | 90 - 100 |
| B | 80 - 89 |
| C | 70 - 79 |
| D | 60 - 69 |
| F | 0 - 59 |

COLBY COMMUNITY COLLEGE POLICIES

Attendance

Colby Community College views class attendance as a mandatory activity. However, if students must be absent, the students should make arrangements in advance with the instructors. Students absent as official college representatives (athletics, activities, or scholarship fulfillment) are not counted absent but MUST make advance arrangements with instructors to complete all course work. Punitive grades cannot and will not be assigned if the absence is excused by the college. It is always the student's responsibility to notify instructors of any absence due to illness or any other reason.

Communication

Course communication will occur through Canvas Announcements, Canvas Inbox, and CCC student email accounts. Response to emails will occur within 24 hours during the week and 48 hours on the weekend.

Netiquette

This is a professional educational environment, and your emails should reflect that. Consequently, you should remember to type your first and last name at the close of every email so I know who I am replying to.

When posting on the Discussion Board in your online class, you should:

- Make posts that are on topic and within the scope of the course material

- Take your posts seriously and review and edit your posts before sending
- Be as brief as possible while still making a thorough comment
- Always give proper credit when referencing or quoting another source
- Be sure to read all messages in a thread before replying
- Don't repeat someone else's post without adding something of your own to it
- Avoid short, generic replies such as, "I agree." You should include why you agree or add to the previous point
- Always be respectful of others' opinions even when they differ from your own
- When you disagree with someone, you should express your differing opinion in a respectful non-critical way
- Do not make personal or insulting remarks
- Be open-minded

Finals

In accordance with Colby Community College policy, students are required to be present for their final exam and/or complete any assessment during the time stated. If you have a conflict with this time, you must obtain written permission two weeks prior from the Executive Vice President and the instructor to schedule a make-up exam. Please note that vacations, previously purchased tickets or reservations, graduations, social events, misreading the final exam schedule, and oversleeping are not viable reasons for rescheduling a final.

Syllabus Information Disclaimer

I reserve the right to change any information contained in this document, when necessary, with adequate notice given to the student. Notice shall be given in the classroom during class. No other notice is required. It is the students' responsibility to stay current with any changes, modifications, adjustments or amendments that are made to this document. Students should adhere to the attendance, cell phone, assignment, test and grading policies in the course syllabus.

Academic Integrity

Colby Community College (CCC) defines academic integrity as learning that leads to the development of knowledge and/or skills without any form of cheating or plagiarism. All CCC students, faculty, and staff, are responsible for upholding academic integrity.

CCC believes that successful students are independent critical thinkers who possess the work ethic and skills necessary to make a positive difference in their professions and communities. In order to maximize student success, CCC is committed to maintaining an honest academic environment and upholding academic integrity as a core value. All individuals across all course modalities are expected to practice academic integrity, which encompasses honesty, trust, respect, fairness, accountability, and responsibility.

Cheating is the giving, receiving, or use of unauthorized help on individual and/or group assignments. Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

The use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations;

The use of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments;

Taking an examination for another student, or asking or allowing another person to take an examination for you;

Impersonating another student, or submitting someone else's work as your own, including allowing others to research and write assigned papers or do assigned projects, including the use of commercial term paper services;

The acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the College faculty or staff;

Sharing content without authorization;

Fabricating or falsifying data, and/or altering academic documents, including records, with or without the use of digital devices;

Unauthorized use of any electronic devices such as cell phones, computers, or other technologies to retrieve or send unauthorized information, including but not limited to, information regarding tests, quizzes, or examinations;

Submitting substantial portions of the same paper to more than one course without consulting with each instructor, and gaining permission to do so;

Engaging in any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion;

Participating in, or giving assistance to, acts of academic misconduct or dishonesty.

Plagiarism is using someone else's work as if it were one's own (without attribution), whether or not it is done intentionally. This includes, but is not limited to:

Using the exact language, without proper citation;

Using nearly the exact language, without proper citation;

Using ideas without citation showing they originated in another's work;

Omitting quotation marks when using language copied from another's work;

Failing to use citations for ideas or language taken from other authors, and,

The unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of papers or other academic materials, and,

Taking credit for a group project without contributing to it.

Consequences may include any and/or all of the following, depending on the facts in each individual case:

_____ The student will receive a zero for the assignment and the student will be reported to the Vice President of Academic Affairs.

_____ The student will receive a failing grade in the class, report to the Vice President of Academic Affairs, and will be removed from the class in which the offense occurred.

_____ The student will be reported to the Vice President of Academic Affairs and dismissed from the College.

A documentation copy of each Academic Integrity infraction will be housed with the Vice President of Academic Affairs and with the Registrar (as an electronic file).

Any questions about academic integrity may be referred to the Vice President of Academic Affairs.

Assessment

Colby Community College assesses student learning at several levels: general education, program, and course. The goal of these assessment activities is to improve student learning. As a student in this course, you will participate in various assessment activities. An example of your work, a paper, some test questions, a presentation, or other work may be selected for assessment. This process will not affect your grade, will not require you do additional work and your evaluation will be confidentially handled. Results of these activities will be used to improve teaching and learning at Colby Community College.

Tutoring

Free tutoring is available to all students at Colby Community College. The Comprehensive Learning Center (CLC), located in the Library, provides support services for all learners, on-campus and online. To schedule an appointment, visit <https://hfdavismemoriamlibrary.setmore.com/>, email tutor@colbycc.edu or call 785-460-5480.

Tutoring is available in Student Support Services to eligible SSS participants. Please contact Student Support Services for qualifying program criteria at 785-460-5510, or by stopping by Student Support Services, located in the Student Union.

Online tutoring from ThinkingStorm is available to Colby Community College students 24/7 through their Canvas accounts. Every student can access up to 10 free hours of online tutoring each semester. For assistance with online tutoring, students may contact ThinkingStorm Support at care@thinkingstorm.com or by phone at 1-877-889-5996.
